News & Notes for St. Paul's Community
Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost
September 27, 2020

Visitors and members—Welcome to St. Paul’s Lutheran Church! We’re glad you’re here and pray that you experience God’s kindness with us in worship.

At St. Paul’s, a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, all baptized persons are welcome at Holy Communion—the Altar is God’s table. While the services are online, we are using individual Communion cups that can be picked up ahead of time at church when the office is open. Gluten free wafers are available upon request. We will announce Communion dates ahead of time.

Jesus’ parable about two sons who don’t do what they say reveals surprises in the reign of God. In the reading from Ezekiel the people claim the ways of the Lord are unfair, while God offers repentance and new life. Paul urges us to look to Christ as a model of humility, putting the interests of others above our own. Nourished by the broken bread and shared cup, we offer our lives for the sake of our needy world.

Today’s Readings

Ezekiel 18:1-4, 25-32 - Ezekiel challenges those who think they cannot change because of what their parents were and did, or who think they cannot reverse their own previous behavior. God insistently invites people to turn and live.
Psalm 25:1-9 - Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love. (Ps. 25:6)
Philippians 2:1-13 - As part of a call for harmony rather than self-seeking, Paul uses a very early Christian hymn that extols the selflessness of Christ in his obedient death on the cross. Christ’s selfless perspective is to be the essential perspective we share as the foundation for Christian accord.
Matthew 21:23-32 - After driving the moneychangers out of the temple (21:12), Jesus begins teaching there. His authority is questioned by the religious leaders, who are supposed to be in charge of the temple.

St. Paul’s Mission Statement

Rooted in God’s unconditional love, the congregation of Saint Paul’s Evangelical Lutheran Church, commits mind, body, spirit, and treasure to encourage all people to become disciples of Christ, to share God’s abundance, and to proclaim the Gospel in word and deed.

We will be hosting a drive once each month from now through December.
The October 28, November 18 and December 30 dates are currently available to book on redcrossblood.org. Use sponsor code St Paul Lutheran Hainesport.
Save a life, give blood.

Pandemic Ponderings
The COVID-19 pandemic has altered the way we live - temporarily or perhaps permanently. We are living through an historic time and we feel it is important to document this time for future generations.
The Legacy Committee is inviting everyone in the congregation to share your pandemic story. We would like to hear how this lockdown has affected your life, the ways you and your family are dealing with it and how you think it could create a ‘new normal’ for all of us. You can write a short essay, a poem, create artwork—the best way you know how to share your story.
Please either email your story to Rosanne at stpaulslutheran@stpaulsh.org or send it to her at the church office.
Thank you.

Hymn of the Day Borning Cry 732

Holy Baptism for Evelyn Willow Platt
All children are invited to come near enough to see.

Prayers of Intercession
L: Drawn together in the compassion of God, we pray for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.
L: In all the world, give your church unity. Inspire all the baptized with the mind of Christ. Where the church is powerful and where it struggles, shape us with humility and obedience so that your love may be at work in us. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: Your Son took on all of bodily life in our world, even to death. Preserve and keep your creation, O God. Mend and redeem places that are polluted and damaged, so that all of creation confesses you as Lord. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: Turn the nations toward life. Where our ways are unfair, give us new hearts and new spirits. Where sin permeates our cultures and institutions, including voter suppression, change our minds and teach us to trust your authority. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: Our lives are yours, O God. Relieve the suffering of those who are ill in body, mind, or spirit. Defend the lives and welfare of children who are abused or neglected, hungry or exploited, bullied or lonely. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: Turn this congregation away from our own interests toward the interests of others. Fill us with your compassion and sympathy. Bless ministries of care in our community especially Sister Frankie and Mt. Nebo; make us into signs of your mercy and justice for our neighbors. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: God of new beginnings, we thank you for all the blessings through the years and praise you for the new possibilities you put before us. Prepare the right pastoral candidate for St. Paul’s future that we may grow in mission. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
L: Thank you for those who have gone into the kingdom ahead of us—tax collectors and prostitutes, likely and unlikely, obedient and slow to learn, (our siblings in faith Ruth and Kathy). By their witness, teach us to confess Jesus Christ as Lord in life and in death. Lord, in your mercy,
C: hear our prayer.
P: All these things and whatever else you see that we need, we entrust to your mercy; through Christ our Lord.
C: Amen.

C: Blessed are you, O God, maker of all things. You have set before us these gifts of your good creation. Amen
The Great Thanksgiving

C: And also with you.
P: Lift up your hearts.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord
Holy, holy, holy Lord; Lord God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory, Hosanna in the highest. Blessed the One who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. Blessed the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

The Lord’s Prayer, page 154
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Postlude: Denisemarie Porter
His Mercy is More

What love could remember,
no wrongs we have done
Omniscient all-knowing,
He counts not their sum Thrown into a sea,
without bottom or shore
Our sins they are many,
His mercy is more

What patience would wait,
as we constantly roam
What Father so tender, is calling us home
He welcomes the weakest, the vilest, the poor
Our sins they are many,
His mercy is more

What riches of kindness,
He lavished on us
His blood was the payment,
His life was the cost
We stood 'neath a debt,
we could never afford
Our sins they are many,
His mercy is more

Praise the Lord,
His mercy is more
Stronger than darkness,
ew every morn
Our sins they are many,
His mercy is more

Praise the Lord,
His mercy is more
Stronger than darkness,
ew every morn
Our sins they are many,
His mercy is more

Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service

Lord, whose love in humble service
bore the weight of human need, who upon the cross, forsaken,
worked your mercy's perfect deed:
we, your servants, bring the worship not of voice alone, but heart; consecrating to your purpose ev'ry gift which you impart.

Still your children wander homeless;
still the hungry cry for bread;
still the captives long for freedom;
still in grief we mourn our dead.
As you, Lord, in deep compassion healed the sick and freed the soul, by your Spirit send your power to our world to make it whole.

As we worship, grant us vision, till your love's revealing light in its height and depth and greatness dawns upon our quickened sight, making known the needs and burdens your compassion bids us bear, stirring us to ardent service,
your abundant life to share.

Called by worship to your service, forth in your dear name we go, to the child, the youth, the aged,
love in living deeds to show;
hope and health, good will and comfort, counsel, aid and peace we give,
that your servants, Lord, in freedom may your mercy know and live.
Borning Cry

"I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized
to see your life unfold.
I was there when you were but a child,
with a faith to suit you well;
in a blaze of light
you wandered off to find where demons dwell."

"When you heard the wonder of the Word
I was there to cheer you on;
you were raised to praise
the living Lord,
to whom you now belong.
If you find someone to share your time and you join your hearts as one,
I'll be there to make your verses rhyme
from dusk till rising sun."

"In the middle ages of your life, not too old, no longer young,
I'll be there to guide you through the night,
complete what I've begun.
When the evening gently closes in and you shut your weary eyes, I'll be there as I have always been,
with just one more surprise."

"I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized
to see your life unfold."

10,000 Reasons

Sing like never before,
Oh my soul;
I'll worship Your Holy name.

It's a new day dawning,
It's time to sing Your song again.
Whatever may pass,
And whatever lies before me.
Let me be singing
When the evening comes.

Oh my soul;
Worship His Holy name.
Sing like never before.
Oh my soul;

And You're slow to anger.

And Your heart is kind.
For all Your goodness,
I will keep on singing.

For my heart to find.

When my strength is failing,
The end draws near.

And then forevermore!
